

Local Literacy Plan Template: 2024-25 School Year

To support every child reading at or above grade level every year, beginning in kindergarten, and to support multilingual learners and students receiving special education services in achieving their individualized reading goals in order to meet grade level proficiency, a school district or charter school must adopt a local literacy plan that describes how they are working to meet that goal. A district must update and submit the plan to the commissioner by June 15 each year Minn. Stat.120B.12, subd. 4a \(2023\). With the purpose of assisting districts and charter schools, the Department of Education has developed this Local Literacy Plan template. The Local Literacy Plan must be approved by the Superintendent and posted to the district or charter school’s website annually.

Minnesota READ Act Goal

The goal of the READ Act is to have every Minnesota child reading at or above grade level every year, beginning in kindergarten, and to support multilingual learners and students receiving special education services in achieving their individualized reading goals Minn. Stat. 120B.12 \(2023\).

District or Charter School Literacy Goal

Three Rivers Montessori (TRM) has developed a local literacy plan to ensure students are reading well by third grade. TRM provides early learning experiences, including multisensory experiences, phonemic awareness and a systematic approach to language instruction to ensure academic success leading to college readiness. The literacy plan meets the requirement of MN State Statute 120B.12 which states that all districts must have a local literacy plan and the requirements of the READ Act.

This plan includes:

- How the district will identify students who are not reading at grade level in all grades and those in grade 3 or higher that demonstrate reading difficulties to their teacher.
- The process by which the district will assess reading proficiency.
- The interventions and approach the district will take to accelerate growth so all children are reading proficiently by the end of third grade.
- Parent communication surrounding assessment results as well as strategies that can be used at home.

- Staff Development and training that allows licensed teachers to develop and maximize skills.

LITERACY GOALS AND OBJECTIVES

Three Rivers Montessori's mission is to empower students to reach their full potential through authentic Montessori learning. Language development is at the heart of the Montessori environment. The Montessori classroom is rich in a variety of experiences such as games that focus on letter sounds, stories, songs and materials that appeal to the senses. TRM provides these experiences to all students so they are reading well by third grade. Further, the Montessori approach embeds the Science of Reading and its core philosophy.

TRM has adopted the following objectives to meet literacy goals:

- TRM's curriculum for reading and writing is aligned with the MN K-12 Academic Standards in English Language Arts.
- TRM uses summative assessment and formative assessments to assess grade-level achievement to the state standards.
- Teachers utilize a lesson planning and record-keeping tool for teachers to determine the progression of lessons in the Montessori curriculum and to track progress/mastery of skills.

CURRICULUM AND INSTRUCTION

The literacy program at Three Rivers Montessori School approaches reading and writing systematically and across the curriculum as a whole. The Montessori curriculum views literacy as a way to connect across cultures, as a means for expressing oneself and as a way to explore individual interests.

TRM focuses on phonemic awareness, phonics, fluency, vocabulary, reading comprehension and written expression to develop literacy skills for all students.

Phonics and Phonemic Awareness

Beginning in Kindergarten children at TRM learn to identify letter sounds by using the sandpaper letters. Children trace the sound with their finger while isolating the sound and saying it out loud. Then they move to the movable alphabet and games that highlight beginning, middle and end sounds.

Montessori language lessons are presented systematically. When children have mastered consonant vowel consonant (CVC words) teachers begin focusing on consonant blends. The movable alphabet assists with the study words that contain consonant blends.

In the Montessori elementary classroom children also begin reading books that focus on their mastered sounds. Books are read aloud to teachers to ensure any skills that do not translate across materials/books can be re-taught.

Vocabulary and Word Study

A developed and extensive vocabulary allows children to better understand others and the world they live in. In the Montessori classroom children experience conversations with adults and peers as well as an environment full of literature and nomenclature. Nomenclature, the matching of pictures with their corresponding labels, is present across all subject areas. This developed vocabulary allows students to better comprehend what they are reading as they become more familiar with a wide range of words.

Fluency, Comprehension and Written Expression

Reading fluency is achieved through repeated practice. In a Montessori environment students practice reading aloud frequently and across subjects. At a young age children start with matching labels to pictures and objects as they learn to classify. Children label the environment and are encouraged to make these labels by sounding out words phonetically.

As students enter the E1 classroom (2nd-3rd grade) they have opportunities to read aloud in small groups, to teachers and to teacher's assistants. This builds confidence and allows for repetition. Students are encouraged to read aloud in small group lessons with the teacher. These opportunities are built into lessons that include informational text that matches photographs in the subjects of science, geography, biology and botany.

The work gets more complex as students enter the E2 classroom, grades 4-6, where the children match historical information to timelines, often creating their own timelines by summarizing and writing information found in encyclopedias and other factual texts. Students study poetry and recite to their peers from memory, while being encouraged to write and present their own ideas. They organize their reports with outlines and key words.

Parent Notification and Involvement

TRM parents and/or guardians are notified of assessment results from formative and diagnostic assessments and screenings at parent/teacher conferences or before implementation if additional screenings or assessments are needed. They are notified by their preferred method of contact, which may include face-to-face, phone call, or email. Parents are notified of the Montessori strategies being implemented for intervention and the progress monitoring method used via the DIBELS Data System, 8th Edition. Parents are informed of the importance of reading to their children at home to support the reading instruction happening in the classroom.

Data-Based Decision Making for Literacy Interventions

Districts are strongly encouraged to adopt the Minnesota Multi-Tiered System of Supports (MnMTSS) framework. This framework should include a process for monitoring student progress, evaluating program fidelity, and analyzing student outcomes and needs in order to design and implement ongoing evidenced-based instruction and interventions Minn. Stat.120B.12, subd. 4a \(2023\). Component 5.1 of the MnMTSS framework provides indicators and criteria for effective data-based decision making. Component 1.6 and the MnMTSS Team Guidebook provide information on establishing effective linked teams for data-based decision making.

Three Rivers Montessori has an extensive MTSS plan and framework that is revised on a yearly basis with building leadership, teaching staff, support staff, and our special education department. The plan and handbook are linked for public view below:

Professional Development Plan

Three Rivers Montessori will be training all teaching staff, educational assistants, paraprofessionals, and intervention support staff via CAREIALL beginning in August of 2024. Training will occur as scheduled below with a completion date of February 19th, 2025. TRM will use formative and diagnostic assessment data via NWEA Map and DIBELS 8th Edition to assure continuous improvement. Supplements to the Montessori scope and sequence will be provided on an as needed basis and progress monitoring via DIBELS 8th Edition will be used to measure student growth and progress.

Action Planning for Continuous Improvement

Three Rivers Montessori has made great strides in developing their MTSS programming to ensure smooth transitions for students who need intensified support throughout their educational journey. We can strengthen our approach by establishing an in-house literacy leadership team that represents all areas of instructional support, from administration to teaching staff and support staff. This team will review the MTSS handbook and update it yearly. They will also be responsible for researching supplements to the Montessori scope and sequence to ensure we are casting a wide net and supporting each and every student that comes through our door in their reading progression.
